

Advent Reflections

Love Hope Joy Peace

A Candlelight Contemplative Gathering

Sunday Evenings, 7–8 p.m.

December 3, 10 & 17

In the Christian tradition, the season of Advent is the month preceding Christmas and is meant to be a time of reflecting on the meaning of the coming of the Christ-child. All are welcome, from all spiritual paths, for this time of beautiful seasonal music, contemplative readings and prayerful meditation.

Led by Christopher Huber and Journey Center Spiritual Directors and gifted musicians and vocalists from our community.

Free admission.
