

Local author Patricia Masters BOOK CELEBRATION!!

Looks Like Lost

Sunday, July 24, 3:30–5:30 pm

“Looks Like Lost: My Journey from the East to the Eucharist” is Patricia’s first book and in it she tells the fascinating story of her spiritual journey. Patricia will share readings from the book as we enjoy appetizers, dessert and beverages.

Patricia writes, “I have sometimes wondered why an ordinary person, one born to a vaguely (Easter and Christmas Christian) Protestant family, should be led through the Eastern traditions and into the Catholic Church. What ideas and experiences led to that choice? Or as others have put it, ‘What were you thinking?!’ What I will try to do here is to answer that for myself as well as for any others who might be interested.”

Patricia’s wonderful e-book is available at this website: lookslikelost.blogspot.com