

ABUNDANT EARTH

Cyndi Gonzalez

"Abundant Earth" features Cyndi's oil paintings, illustrating her appreciation of the rural life aspect of Sonoma County. She feels that we should cherish and nourish what God has provided for us and her most recent paintings are of farms, vineyards, livestock and produce. Cyndi says "My works are primarily in oil paint, either using brushes or painting knives. Drawing and painting have been a passion of mine for most of my life. My love of nature, color and whimsy are apparent in my artwork. I consider creating art to be one of the best means of having closer contact with the Almighty Creator."
