

Discovering Your Spiritual Career Path a workshop with Cynthia H. Stringer, Master Coach

Saturday, January 21, 10 a.m.–12:30 p.m.

Learn how to define and align your life-affirming skills and values with your vocation and career. Come listen for how God may be presenting new insights and nudges forward in your career. In this introductory workshop we'll explore how listening to your intuition, working with silence and daily practices can assist us to be in alignment with our life-affirming skills and values and open to our next Spiritual Career steps. Handouts, reflection time, follow up Strategy Coaching session included.

Cynthia H. Stringer, MCC, M.Div. and Spiritual Director is trained in energy psychology and is a Master Coach. She has been a practicing life and career coach for over 25 years. She recently graduated from the Journey Center's Spiritual Direction program and continually explores how her skills, vocation and training integrate for greater service to others. Visit www.successbydesign.net to experience more. Register online at www.journeycenter.org or call 707-578-2121. Cost: $25.
