The Transformative Power of Conflict with Diana Redmond

Saturday, October 21, 9:30 a.m. – 4:00 p.m.

When we work with conflict in more creative, open, and heart-felt ways, we not only transform the nature of our conflicts, but we transform ourselves and conflict becomes both a spiritual and healing path. In this workshop, discover how the Enneagram and some guiding principles of conflict transformation will assist us in engaging conflict more consciously, creatively, and compassionately.

Diana Redmond is a certified Enneagram teacher
(through the Enneagram Institute).

Workshop fee: $50. Register and pay with our online registration form (www.journeycenter.org) or call the Journey Center at (707) 578-2121. Familiarity with the Enneagram will be helpful, but is not required.
