

Encountering The Holy in Creation Series

Honey Extraction Workshop: A practical, hands-on experience!

With Beekeeper Emery Dann

Workshop:

Sunday, September 22, 2–4:30 p.m.

Location:

The Journey Center and Emery's nearby hives and extraction room.

Join Emery Dann in uncapping and extracting honey from the comb. You will participate with others in learning how to extract and bottle your very own jar of honey that is yours to keep.

Historically honey was used as money and currency because of its' amazing value and health benefits. Egyptians diagnosed 400 medical problems using recipes with honey in the oldest medical book in the world, "Egyptian Papyrus Ebers". Come experience and bottle your very own 1/2 pound jar of honey the bees made for you after visiting over 1 million flowers!

Cost: Ages 15 and under = $10.

16 to 100 = $20. Over 100 = free

Emery Dann is a well-known Sonoma County beekeeper, for nearly a decade rescuing bees from bad locations, doing honey extractions, swarm hiving, mentoring dozens of beekeepers and consulting. He is the past president of the Sonoma County Beekeepers Association and he sure can be funny... "I never met a bee I didn't like. Some bees however, didn't like me!"
