

Encountering the Holy through Art

A Contemplative Day Retreat

Saturday, July 16, 9:30 a.m.–6:00 p.m.
De Young Museum, San Francisco

This day is about contemplatively interacting with the Creator, through beautiful works of art at the De Young Museum. You are invited to prayerfully view the artwork and in meditation reflect on what the Holy might be saying to you. A piece of art may have spiritual meaning for you; an invitation into a holy dialogue. Following this time of reflection, you will be invited to respond creatively by designing your own piece of collage art.

Individual spiritual direction sessions will also be available throughout the day. Wear Comfortable shoes/clothing as there will be some walking involved.

Cost: $85. Lunch is provided. Limited to 12 retreatants. Registration required. Register online at www.journeycenter.org/regForm.php or call the Journey Center at 707-578-2121. Directions supplied upon registration.

Led by Cindy Buscaglia, Linda Simmons Harder and Angie Tate (intern spiritual directors in the Journey Center's training program).
